

Call for Registration
Post ISAPA 2015 Conference
International Course of Inclusive Physical Education and Sport
June 16-18; 09:00 – 15:00
Venue
The Zinman College for Physical education and Sport Sciences at the Wingate Institute, Israel

Presenters

Martin Block is a Professor of Kinesiology in the Curry School of Education at the University of Virginia where he teaches courses in adapted physical education. He is the author of over 70 peer reviewed articles, 14 chapters in books, and five books on adapted physical education and motor development. He is the most renowned international scholar addressing inclusion in physical education.

Lauren J. Lieberman is a distinguished service professor at the State University of New York at Brockport in the area of Adapted Physical Education. She is the undergraduate coordinator of the Adapted Physical Education program and Director of Camp Abilities: a developmental sports camp for children with visual impairments. She is author of 88 articles and 14 books, and the most well known scholar and practitioner on including children with visual impairments in physical education and sport

Students in the Course will

- 1) Learn how to create instructional accommodations (how information is presented)
- 2) Learn how to create curricular accommodations (how to accommodate children who have deficits in strength, speed endurance, coordination)
- 3) Learn how to create modifications to accommodate children with disabilities in team sports and games
- 4) Learn how to create activities to help children without disabilities be more accepting of peers with disabilities
- 5) Learn how to create a positive, functional approach to help children with behavior challenges
- 6) Learn how to utilize resources for instructing children with disabilities such as videos, books, web sites, products, recreational programs and international specialists
- 7) Perform simulation activities to implement what they have learned

Participants will be awarded with an International Diploma and academic credit of the Zinman College

For additional information and registration secmed@wincol.ac.il